

The Job Alert! is our weekly email to candidates keeping them up-to-date with:

- public affairs roles on offer in Canberra and beyond– including an update on their status each week;
- professional development opportunities – in Canberra and ones we offer interstate; and
- industry happenings.

It has been in existence since January 2002 and is keenly read by those looking for new jobs, clients as well as candidates.

“Your newsletter is very good and very informative.” 19 October 2010

“I hope that things are going well for you and the business; I look forward to reading your updates each week.” 18 October 2010

“Hi Karen Once again, thank you for your warm response. I really value your encouragement. One day I WILL get over there!” and “The Job Alert is a great help. So thanks for sending it on.” 18 October 2010

“Just wanted to let the team know that even though there aren't a lot of jobs out there the newsletter is actually a really interesting read and I look forward to it each week!” 6 March 2009

“I read it every week. Very informative.” 16 February 2009

“Thanks for keeping me informed of possible job prospects through your calls, emails and newsletter. It's really useful looking at the range of jobs available, both in private and government sectors, and I really appreciate being kept in the loop. Some of them look really interesting! Please keep me on your email list for updates.” 15 April 2008

“An ex-colleague of mine, ..., who you placed in (as she pointed out) a 'very interesting position', told me that you very extremely helpful and that I should speak to you too, as I am currently looking for a new job.... Anyhow, I would like to register to receive your Job Alerts. Sonja showed me the last one and I thought it was really good.” 1 April 2007

“The Job Alert is very good. I especially the detail you provide about the positions [in the Hidden Job Market section]. I'm not a control freak but I do like to know what's going on. With some agencies you don't know exactly when and where you CV has been sent. The way you operate is much better.” 22 March 2007

“I've been a subscriber to the newsletter for the past 3.5 years, after Public Affairs Recruitment found me my first job in Canberra, and it really is a well put together publication. I, and others I know who subscribe, appreciate the work you put into it every week.” 11 March 2007

“I would like to be added to your distribution list, you've sold me 10 times over. You absolutely walk over seek or mycareer. It looks like a really worthwhile service and I'd like to join. The CV tips link was very handy and reinforced some of my own beliefs on resume formatting.” 13 February 2007

“The Job Alert service is unique and fantastic.” 11 October 2006

“It's brilliant – a really good service” 6 September 2006

“The Job Watch is a great resource” 30 August 2006

“I read the Job Alerts keenly each week and I will contact you if there is anything I think looks better than my job...” 4 July 2006

“I read the Job Alert every week as it's a great way to keep in touch.’ I love receiving the Job Alert” 2 & 5 June 2006

“I haven't had a chance to look in the paper for a new job but I've been using your wonderful document” 13 March 2006
